

Housing Resources

This is a list of housing resources for individuals who have experienced or are experiencing domestic or dating violence. It is common for individuals to need emergency housing or assistance to find long term housing after leaving a partner for safety reasons.

Any individual can choose to seek out these resources on their own, but if you would like assistance please contact the Title IX Coordinator at TitleIX@artcenter.edu.

The Title IX office can support you in finding resources regardless of whether or not you have made a complaint or are in an official process.
